Peggy Lee LeFors is from Pacific Northwest! She makes her home in Everett, Washington, where she and her husband, Nick LeFors, Jr.

Are Deaf Pastors at Bethany Deaf Assembly of God. They have served and ministered to the greater Seattle, Washington in Deaf area for 25 years. Peggy is a 1971 graduate of Virginia School for the Deaf and is also a graduate of Gallaudet University. She has a real heart for reaching the Deaf locally, and nationally. She has travelled across North America to share God's Word and teach on marriage, worship and leadership and also family/youth camps and Deaf women retreats. She has been married to her husband, Nick for 35 years last December.

They have 3 grown children, Charlee, Jenilee and Nick, III, Niles (son in love) and 3 grandchildren, Samuel, Nathan and Rachel. She loves all things Americans and her favorite treat is a cup of Starbucks coffee.

MISSION STATEMENT

As a part of the Pentecostal body of Christ, the mission of the Deaf Women's Fall Retreat is to serve an outreach seeking to provide avenues where Deaf Women across America can experience the touch of God bringing healing of the body, mind, and soul. Through opportunities of worship and fellowship with God and each other, strengthened commitments to Christ and to each other brings hope.
