Since 2004, Alan "has toured the United States with his critically acclaimed, one-man show, "The Abababa Road Tour" chronicling his experiences growing up hearing in a Deaf family. ABABABA—a name given to him by a dear friend, Bonnie Kraft who could not pronounce Abarbanell—is a proud coda (Child of Deaf Adults) and member of CODA International (www.coda-international.org). Alan wrote this show as a loving tribute to his Deaf heritage and coda family. Abababa's performances take his audiences on a rollercoaster ride of emotion; first pulling them through the hilarious rush and shocking twists of his youth, then plunging them into the tragedy and loss that followed, only to hurl them upwards towards uncontrollable laughter once again! With the simple wave of a hand, Abababa renders each audience exhausted from gales of laughter and torrents of tears by evening's end."
