

MinneCODA is proud to present...

"Interpreting's Most Outrageous Moments: An Ethical Study"

Date: Saturday, March 3, 2012
Time: 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm
Location: Mendel Hall, Rm. 106
St. Catherine University
2004 Randolph Ave, St Paul, MN 55105
Cost: $35.00

Everyone is welcome: Deaf and Hearing Interpreters, Interpreting Students, and Teachers

Interpreting's Most Outrageous Moments: "An Ethical Study"

In 25 years of freelance interpreting, Alan Abarbanell has experienced almost every conceivable interpreting scenario. In this highly interactive and extremely enjoyable workshop, Abababa relates real-life interpreting scenarios and invites group and individual discussion about ethical implications, and where personal/moral codes can sometimes blur the lines of professionalism.

This workshop is limited to 40 participants, so be sure to sign up NOW!

To register: Contact Sarah Pflugh at minnecoda@ymail.com. The registration deadline is two business days before the event. To cancel, submit a written request by email, to the registration contact person.

If you need special accommodations, please contact Susan Sweezo slsweezo@stkate.edu by February 24, 2012.

St. Catherine University is an approved RID sponsor for continuing education activities. This program is offered for .3 CEUs and assumes some basic knowledge of the topic.

Collaborative for the Advancement of Teaching Interpreting Excellence
2004 Randolph Avenue, #4280 • St. Paul, MN 55105
www.stkate.edu/catie

ST. CATHERINE
UNIVERSITY
CATIE Center